Description

Largest selection of genuine antique weapons for sale in UK. See our website andrewbottomley.com. Ref 1682. An English round bodied percussion muff pistol, Circa 1840. Engraved Smith on one side and London on the other side. The finely chequered butt fitted with a diamond shaped silver escutcheon. Screw-off barrel 1.5 inches in length, approx .36 calibre. Drop down folding trigger. Sliding top safety. The frame stamped underneath with two clear British proof marks. The side plates both engraved with a stand of arms. Nice crisp action. Overall length approx 5 inches. In good condition with some very minor blemishes. A good example of an English percussion muff pistol of the type carried for personal protection during the 18th century. Ref 1682. This is an obsolete antique item and is sold as a collectors item only. No Licence is required in the United Kingdom. If you wish to purchase this item please visit our website andrewbottomley.com where you can pay by credit/debit card or bank transfer at no extra charge. Established 1968.
